

YOUR PRODUCTS IN COOL LOCATIONS

Canaries | Caribbean | Cape Town

Perfect for a bottle of spirits wanting to go back to its roots, apparel meant for faraway beaches, accessories needing a mountain backdrop... If your products are shouting out for an iconic location and great light, give them to me, sit back, and wait for them to get back from holiday.

As race photographer for the World's Toughest Row (Atlantic & Pacific) and with family in Cape Town - I travel for up to six months of the year to the most stunning locations. This gives you the opportunity to have product lifestyle images on location - at a fraction of the cost.
